

I AM TIRED

'Parithimathi'

Running Continuously in life, I am Tired,
All the times remaining perfect, I am Tired,
Seeing everyone materialistic, and self concerned, I am Tired,
Wanted to be dutiful son, but all the time mistaken, I am Tired,
Hearing all the time advices from others, I am Tired,
All praises for others, all the time blames for me, I am Tired,
Guiding me to achieve something, and guidance comes from failed person, makes me Tired,
When what I have done is in order, System says it is wrong, I am Tired,
Struggle for solving issues more than 4-5 decades, and issues remain statusco, I am Tired,
When one man's voice is unheard in a system, I am Tired,
Repeated prayers remain not blessed by God, I am Tired,
When Sincerity and Genuineness is put into question, I am Tired,
When blood relations insult and ill treat me, I am Tired,
In the front all praising words, far away making rubbish comments, make me Tired,
When I take balance sheet of life, in both business and socially, results make me Tired,
Only once we are born, feeling of not completing obligations before death, makes me Tired,
End of the journey appears close by, not finishing agendas and rushing makes me Tired,
I think, when the candle nears extinguishing, it may also feel Tired.

(It appears that everyone in inner soul will have all these, but I could only express.
If contents are appreciated, all will understand the preciousness and distractions in human life)
